SECOND DAY OF THE REUNION

PROMINENT SPEAKERS PRESENT.
MUCH BUSINESS TRANSACTED.
GOVERNOR CRUCE SPEAKS.

Yesterday afternoon's session of the reunion closed with eloquent addresses
by Judge T. D. McKeown and Mr.
Monroe.

In the evening the reception at the Normal drew as large a crowd as the building could accommodate.
Every one was in a jolly mood and all had a glorious time, which was made the more enjoyable by the excellent punch served by the ladies.

At 10 o'clock the crowd gathered at the Elks' hall and the remainder of the evening was devoted to the pleasures of the ball room, the occasion being the sponsor's ball which always forms an important feature of the annual reunions. It was most noticeable at both the reception and the ball special attention was given the veterans.

Gov. Cruce Speaks.

This morning Gov. Lee Cruce and Judge R. L. Williams arrived via the Katy and were met by a large number of citizens. The auto in which

ADDRESS OF

MRS. T.D. DAVIS

On behalf of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, let me say that we must deeply appreciate the hearty welcome that has been extended to us by the people of Ada. A welcome that needed not the assistance of eloquence to manifest it because the spontaneous and sincere cordiality with which we have been greeted, has I dare say abundantly convinced each visitor here that your hearts and homes are wide open to receive us.

With the love and pride you feel in your city and your state, there goes a patriotic love for the sons and daughters of the South. Your welcome has evinced this. You have asked us to have a good time and to take your city and we intend to accept your invitation, and if we seem to put too liberal a translation on it, let the censure, if any there be rest on the hospitable people of Ada.

Aunt Nerva Ann says: "Taint big houses; 'taint land; 'taint fine clothes what makes quality; it's des a long line of grave yards, stretching 'way back to Virginia or farder with a heap of graves in 'em and its folks what knows how to treat tother folks." In Ada even a Missourian would say:
"you certainly know how to treat tother folks."

We are proud of the entertainment you have given this convention. We have come to you full of enthusiasm.
U. D. C. enthusiasm and we intend to graft some of it here ere we leave your city and in the near future we predict for you one of the most flourishing chapters of the Daughters of Confederacy in our state. You have made the entertainment of this convention a great success and to you all we your guests, bend our hearts, and extend our hands in acknowledgement of the princely hospitality you so lavishly shower upon us.

We do not come together each year to foster a feeling of antagonism of antimosity, but to cherish the ties of friendship, one for another, and 'tis here friendships are formed that go with us through life, and to join in forever upbuilding the precious memories of a noble past, and to prove to the world that we were right and
"eternal right, though all else fail, can never be made wrong."

My friends, we will not go away empty handed, nor alone—we go away freighted with happy memories inex-haustable and unalloyed of a warm hearted hospitality and measureless kindnesses—messengers of your good will. Happy the people who can thus speed the parting guest, and fortunate the guest who has found his welcome almost an adoption and whose farewell leaves half his heart behind.

Water Fight.

About dark this evening there will be a demonstration of the great water supply of Ada. It will take place on Main street, and the fire hoses will play a regular tune with streams of water. It will be an impressive lesson to all of the greatness of the Ada supply.

The Murray County Singing convention will be held at Dolberg on Sunday Sept 15th. All singing classes from Pontotoc and Garvin counties are invited to attend and participate with the Murray county singers. Dolberg is the line class part from each county, and for this reason was selected as the place of meeting. Bring well-filled baskets and come prepared to make a day of it. Roff Eagle.

The News has hitherto taken no stock in the fight between Gov. Cruce and the state board of education, for the reason that we were not fully informed of the real merits of the case. However, after examining the histories adopted for use in the public schools for the next five years, it is apparent that the board is too densely incompetent to hold such position and we are forced to the conclusion that Gov. Cruce knew what he was about when he fired the bunch. All we want is a fair and impartial text book, not par-

FIRST TO WRITE OF AFRICA

Mungo Park Properly May Claim Distinction of Pioneering in the "Dark Continent."

Mungo Park, the African traveler and explorer, was born at Foulshiels on the Yarrow, England, in 1771. He was one of thirteen children, and as a youth was apprenticed to a surgeon. Afterward he studied medicine in Edinburgh. It was in May, 1795, that he set out on his expedition to trace the source of the Niger. After many adventures, among them imprisonment by a Moorish king, Park escaped and in three weeks' time succeeded in reaching the Niger at Sego. He followed the Niger down its course as far as Silla, where he encountered hindrances that compelled his return, and he arrived back at Gambia in June, 1797, after an absence of nineteen months. An account of his travels, published under the title "Travels in the Interior of Africa," at once had a large sale. Park afterwards settled down as a surgeon at Peebles, Scotland, having married a daughter of Dr. Anderson, his old Selkirk friend, but tiring of the quiet monotony of a country surgeon's life, he undertook a second expedition to Africa, this time under the auspices of the government, in 1805. He and his companions were drowned at Boussa on the Niger. Mrs. Park was in receipt of a pension until her death in 1840.

"The Calf."

The Church hall of the National Church of Scotland, in Crown court, Covent garden, London, has just received an addition to its portraits of former ministers. It is a portrait of the Rev. James Stevens, D. D., who was inducted in 1787. In making the announcement in the church monthly, the Rev. A. Macrae, the minister, writes: "In his younger days Mr. Stevens fell foul of Robert Burns, for on one occasion, preaching from the text Malachi 4:2: 'And they shall go forth and grow up like calves in the stall,' the irrepressible poet on returning from church wrote his verses on 'The Calf,' giving a painful immortality to the poor gentleman's style and name. Gossip further declares that on Mr. Stevens' settlement in London Burns' cousin, who had been up on a visit, wrote the poet that he had attended Crown Court church and had heard 'The Calf' preach. In 1803 Dr. Stevens was presented to the parish of Kilwinning, Ayrshire, and died suddenly of apoplexy at his manse there on February 15, 1824." He was one of the founders of the London Missionary society.

New Negro Type.

The United States census of 1910 reveals an interesting fact about the negro. Despite crossing with lighter races the southern negro is growing darker. Negroes were formerly classified as octoroons, quadroons, mulattoes and blacks. Those distinctions have given place to a homogeneous type which is not pure negro, yet is not lighter in color than the negro of unmixed blood. The characteristics of the new type is an accentuation of the color of the skin. The negro of Louisiana, notably of New Orleans, is darker than were his ancestors. The type is of a softer and more velvety black than the Congolese; and the peculiar softness of color is accompanied by features of a less prominent African type, while the hair is less wool like.

In One Ton of Coal.

From one ton of ordinary gas coal may be produced 1,500 pounds of coke, 20 gallons of ammonia water and 140 pounds of coal tar. By distillation the coal tar will yield 69.6 pounds of pitch, 17 pounds of cresote, 14 pounds of heavy oils, 9.5 pounds of naphtha yellow, 6.3 pounds of naphtha line, 4.75 pounds naphthol, 2.25 pounds of alizarin, 2.4 pounds solvent naphtha, 1.5 pounds phenol, 1.2 pounds aurine, 1.1 pounds benzine, 1.1 pounds aniline, 0.77 of a pound of toluene, 0.46 of a pound anthracene, and 0.9 of a pound toluene. From the latter is obtained the substance known as saccharine which is 230 times as sweet as the best cane sugar, one part of it giving a very sweet taste to 1,000 parts of water.

Profit on Sewage.

Bradford is probably the only city in the United Kingdom which derives a big revenue from its sewage, and there seems a prospect that in time the sewage works will be self-supporting. The town has just erected new machinery at a cost of $300,000 to extract marketable products from the city's sewage. Last year the corporation made a profit of $150,000 from grease recovered from the sewage, and it is anticipated that the annual profit will now be raised to $250,000. A market has been found for the pressed cake which remains after the grease has been extracted, and large quantities of this have been exported to be used as fertilizers in France and South America.

Daily Work of the Bee.

How much work is done daily by each bee in order to make up his quota for the building of the hive? An agriculturist who has made a study of bees estimates that each bee sips more than 600 flowers per load, and as he makes 20 trips to and from the hive daily he visits 12,000 flowers.

India's Immense Gold Imports.

For the year from January to December, 1911, India's import of gold from all quarters reached $23,389,000—or about one-fourth of the world's gold annual production—compared with $18,023,000 in 1910 and $10,068,000 in 1909.

YOUNG MOTHERS

No young woman, in the joy of coming motherhood, should neglect to prepare her system for the physical ordeal she is to undergo. The health of both herself and the coming child depends largely upon the care she bestows upon herself during the waiting months. Mother's Friend prepares the expectant mother's system for the coming event, and its use makes her comfortable during all the term. It works with and for nature, and by gradually expanding all tissues, muscles and tendons, involved, and keeping the breasts in good condition, brings the woman to the crisis in splendid physical condition. The baby, too, is more apt to be perfect and strong where the mother has thus prepared herself for nature's supreme function. No better advice could be given a young expectant mother than that she use Mother's Friend; it is a medicine that has proven its value in thousands of cases. Mother's Friend is sold at drug stores. Write for free book for expectant mothers which contains much valuable information, and many suggestions of a helpful nature. BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO., Atlanta, Ga.

THE REBEL SOLDIER.

I am a rebel soldier
From South Carolina come,
And poverty compelled me
To turn out in the ranks.

In all kinds of weather,
If it were wet or dry,
It was my fate, I must relate,
To either sing or cry.

Cold weather was approaching,
I had no clothes to pack,
For no one I left behind me,
They were all upon my back.

And I defy the hardest
Of all the London trade,
The landlord of Methuselah,
To tell where they were made.

My coat cost two and sixpence,
About forty years ago,
I bought it from a peddler,
His name I do not know.

My cap I bought from a soldier,
The lining from the store,
That oil skin had covered it,
For forty long years or more.

If my old shoes were fellows,
You'd think them something rare,
One I got at Gettysburg,
The other at the Wilderness.

My Sox I did not buy them,
Although they cost me high,
My slips I got among the rags
Where the soldiers used to lie.

Perhaps you think I stole them,
But I tell you 'tis not so,
Ten thousand had passed by them
And would not stoop so low.

Til an officer bid me take them,
And take them without fear,
For they were not fit for anything
But a South Carolina Volunteer.

Beside my silken handkerchief
To ornament my frame,
I bought it from a lad on the battlefield,
One mile from Petersburg.

Come near, my brother soldier,
And hear what I will say,
Perhaps in some snug corner
We'll find a glass of beer,

Which always makes me merry
And cheerful as you see,
May kind heaven reward the soldier boy,
The sons of poverty.

MUSKOGEE GETS NEXT REUNION

Late this afternoon Muskogee was chosen as the next meeting place of State reunion next year.

RESOLUTION ADOPTED BY CONFEDERATE ORGANIZATIONS

Be it resolved, that we, the Oklahoma Division of the United Sons of Confederate Veterans in convention assembled, hereby condemn and stamp with our disapproval the Gordy Elementary History of the United States and the Gordy History of the United States for Grammar schools, and the James & Sanford American History for High schools, recently adopted by the State Board of Education for use in the public schools in this state for the next five years, for the reason that said books are strongly partisan and sectional, filled with inflammatory illustrations and quotations, and for the further reason that practically all their references are to strong partisan of the North. The entire spirit of these books is such that it will prejudice the child's mind against the South and the Southern people to such an extent that it will take years to eradicate it from the minds of even the Southern children.

Be it further resolved, that a committee of three be appointed to act with a committee from our kindred organizations, and they are instructed to present these resolutions to the State Board of Education together with a list of books that are fair to the South and demand of the Board that they supplant these books with some text that deals fairly with the South, as well as the North, both politically and sectionally.

GEO. F. BAER TO RETIRE FROM RAILWAY SERVICE

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 5.—George F. Baer president of the Philadelphia and Reading Railway Company will attain his seventieth year on the twentieth of this month. According to the rules of the company's pension system he will then cease to be the active head of the great railroad and coal properties of the Reading Company. So far no official announcement has been made concerning Mr. Baer's prospective retirement. It is not believed, however, that any exception to the retirement rule will be made in this case and it is expected that he will relinquish his duties as president as soon as satisfactory arrangements can be made in regards to his successor.

The retirement of Mr. Baer will retire from his active ranks one of the most dominant figure in American railroad and industrial circles. For more than forty years he has had an intimate connection with Pennsylvania's leading industries and during nearly half of that period he may be said to have guided the destinies of the whole field of anthracite coal mining and the numerous allied industries.

Mr. Baer is a native son of Pennsylvania, having been born in the town of Somerset in 1842. At the age of 13 he quit school to learn the printer's trade. He saved his small earnings with a view to attending college and securing a legal education. This plan was interrupted by the civil war. In 1862 Mr. Baer went to the front as captain of a company of volunteers. After the close of the war he resumed his law studies and was admitted to the bar in 1865.

In 1870 Mr. Baer, who had already attained prominence in his profession though not yet thirty years old, prosecuted an action for damages against the Reading railroad so ably and successfully that he was made counsel for the railroad company. In this position he was able to extend the

THREE SKELETONS FOUND IN CELLAR AT PONCA CITY

Ponca City, Okla., Sept. 5.—Three skeletons sitting in chairs about a poker table with $275.75 in front of them was the gruesome sight that was found and met the gaze of spectators when the old "Missouri John" saloon building on South First street was moved from its foundation. The discovery was made in a secret cellar which no one in the city ever dreamed was in existence. These men were all dressed in cowboy attire, slouch hat, buckskin leggings, high-heeled boots, with silver spurs, each having a six-shooter in his belt.

On the table in front of them were several stacks of different colored poker chips and $275.75 in currency and silver. Besides this there was a full case of quart bottles of Helm beer sitting close by, with just three empty bottles in the case.

How these men came to their death is as much of a mystery as the secret cellar with its secret passage way to the cold storage house on the rear of the lot. No mark of violence could be found, and there was not an empty chamber in any of the three guns found.

If your child is pale and sickly, picks at the nose, starts in the sleep and grinds the teeth while sleeping, it is a sure sign of worms. A remedy for these parasites will be found in WHITE'S CREAM VERMIFUGE. It not only clears out the worms, but it restores health and cheerfulness. Price 25c per bottle. Sold by the Ramsey Drug Co.

The Otter a Wanderer.

Of all the beasts in the world, the otter, that fierce outlaw is the greatest wanderer. It is as if he were afflicted with a curse that forbids him to be still, that forces him ever to push on—on—on! Rest, as rest, he knows not. Three days will see the end of his longest inaction, and the amount of miles he covers in a fortnight would amaze some folks.—Outing.

DAUGHTERS EVENING AT THE NORMAL

This evening at the Normal the Daughters of the Confederacy will give a special program. In fact, the occasion will be strictly a Daughters' evening, to which the entire public is cordially invited. The program will be concluded in ample time to permit all visitors to attend the Colonial dance immediately following.

The Dubinskys again drew a good crowd last evening and also maintained their reputation for being up to date in every particular. Read their announcement for this evening.

New Industrial Material.

As the result of many years of experimenting in England, a new substitute for hard rubber, gutta percha and leather has been announced. It is a product of seaweed. The new material is said to be especially useful in the electrical industries, being a noninflammable insulation of high dielectric strength, proof against heat, cold, oils and weather.

Lady and the Carpenter.

A French lady living in London engaged a carpenter to do some work for her at a stipulated price. She was surprised later to find that he charged her more than the price agreed upon. When she attempted to remonstrate with him, however, her English failed her, and she said: "You are dearer to me now than when we were first engaged."

The governor was taken to the Normal was escorted by the drum corps, which is furnishing the music for the reunion. This afternoon Governor Cruce delivered a stirring address to a crowded house of veterans and visitors. He spoke for almost an hour and held the perfect attention of the audience throughout.

The governor did not speak, as most speakers do on occasions of this kind, of the great good and benefit the soldiers have done. Nor did he utter but few tributes to the good women of the South. On the contrary he said that in his opinion the veterans had heard enough of this and wanted to know more of the things that go to make up a good government, and what a good citizen should do. Some of his best sentences were: "Government by the people will never be realized until the individual feels that he owes something to the community."

"The greatest legacy a man can leave to his child is a good and just government."

"I say to a man who was against the state-wide prohibition that if he is a good citizen, he will help to enforce the prohibition laws of the state."

"As long as I am governor of this state, I expect to stand for what the best of the state demands."

The second day of the reunion of the Confederate Veterans has been full of business and pleasure from the early part of the morning. The meeting was called to order by Commander Hailey at 9:30 this morning, and invocation by Rev. T. F. Brewer, the chaplain, followed. In the absence of Hon. J. W. Bailey, Mrs. Hunt gave a reading.

The address of the morning was delivered by Tate Brady, of Tulsa, Commander Oklahoma Division Sons U. C. V. His address with flowery and appropriate phrases from beginning to end. In his talk he had occasion to approve the separate coach law of Oklahoma and the grandfather clause. This approval caused a wave of applause to sweep over the house.

W. F. Guimer, of Oklahoma City and a former member of the Oklahoma legislature, was called to the platform and spoke for ten minutes on the good the women of the South have done. He also spoke of the needs of the Confederate Home at Ardmore. He says we need more room there, and also a hospital. It is hoped, he said, that the state appropriation will not be denied us this time as it was last.

Charlie Carter our United States congressman, talked for a few minutes only. In that pleasing way that is so characteristic of the Indian law maker, he spoke of the debt we owe the Southern soldier and the Southern women.

"Whatever achievements your sons and daughters have accomplished is due to your courage during the war," was one of the many beautiful tributes he paid to the old men, who are fast passing from us.

His tribute to the Southern women, their bravery, their fortitude, and their unbounded devotion to the cause of right, were such as would make any one wish he were a son of the sunny South. "The American woman is the greatest that ever graced the face of earth, and the Southern woman is the grandest of the American."

Miss Charlie Waas, of Wagoner, and Miss Gertrude Thompson, of Ada, entertained the veterans for a few minutes with their reading and songs.

The report of the Adjutant General was read and adopted.

The first brigade of Oklahoma met last night and re-elected Dr. John John Threadgill, of Oklahoma City, as brigadier general. A. M. Crow, of

MALARIA—BLOOD POVERTY

Malaria is a species of blood poverty known as Anaemia; the circulation becomes so weak and impure that it is unable to supply the system with sufficient nourishment and strength to preserve ordinary health. In the first stages of Malaria the complexion grows pale and sallow, the appetite is affected, the system grows bilious, and there is a general feeling of weakness. As the circulation becomes more thoroughly saturated with the malarial infection, the digestion is deranged, chills and fever come and go, skin diseases, boils, sores and ulcers break out, and the entire health becomes impaired. Malaria can only be cured by removing the germs from the blood. S. S. S. destroys every particle of malarial infection and builds up the blood to a strong nourishing condition. Then the system receives its proper amount of nutriment, sallow complexions grow ruddy and healthful, the liver and digestion are righted and every symptom of Malaria passes away. S. S. S. cures in every case because it purifies the blood. S. S. S. is a safe and pleasant remedy as well as an efficient one. Book on the blood and any medical advice free.

Colonial Dance Tonight.

The regular Colonial dance that is usually held during the annual reunions of the veterans will be pulled off tonight at the Normal building. It will begin promptly at 9:30. This promises to be one of the most enjoyable affairs of the whole reunion. There will be number of quadriles, and the old soldiers will show us younger people how the real old square dancing is done.

It indeed ought to be entertaining to see this old-fashioned dance, for it is a thing that is fast passing away, and we will have to see it now or never.
